SIGURD ANDERSON
GOVERNOR

PIERRE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the nation of Switzerland has over a period of years established a reputation among the nations of the world for its industry and prosperity; and

WHEREAS, Switzerland has successfully made an effort to remain at peace even when much of the world has been cast into all-out war; and

WHEREAS, the independence of Switzerland over a period of 661 years is an inspiration to the free peoples of the world; and

WHEREAS, there are many South Dakotans who have a keen interest in Switzerland:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, hereby declare August 1, 1952 as a day of observance for the independence of the Swiss people, and request South Dakotans to observe the day in accordance with their personal feelings.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 30th day of July, 1952.
